My dear Gadgil:

Thank you for your letter of 12 February 1998.

I very much enjoyed the meeting and seeing your work - which is really excellent! I know what a struggle it must be to try and do work of such high standard, Congratulations on your efforts.

While I would like to visit Kolhapur and Sangli, I don't think it can happen in the near future, as I have a lot of travelling to do. (After Kolhapur, I went on to Goa - and last week visited Ahmedabad). So it might be better if you get someone else to inaugurate your building. But my thoughts will be with you on that occasion.

With kind regards,
